All the local clubs are called to meet promptly at $45 o'clock and march to the headquarters, where their division is to form. The parade will slart off promptly at $'clock, so all organizations should be in line and ready to start at that time.

The demonstration is going to be a grand one, and as the railroad employes begin to arrive before noon and the Republican clubs in the afternoon, every residence and business house should be decorated early this morning. Every believer in sound money shoula decorate, whether the parade passes his home or not, and above all, everybody should burn lots of red fire and fireworks. They should, however, he careful not to send up rockets while the horses are passing, as there will be a number of strange horses from the country districts in line and the firing of the rockets might frighten them. ternoon at Wheeling park occurs the great tri-state demonstration by the sound money railroaders' clubs, at which speeches will be made by President John K. Cowen, of the Baltimore & Ohlo Railroad Company, and President William A. Lynch, of the Canton-Massillon and Wheeling & Connelisville Railroad Companies.

In the evening occurs the great marching clubs' demonstration, under the auspices of the Republican marching clubs of Wheeling. The demonstration committee has assurances of the presence here to-night of innumerable clubs from various cities and towns in the tri-state radius. Pittstowns in the tri-state radius. Pitts-burgh in particular, will be numerously represented. It is anticipated that there will be 3,000 to 5,000 marchers at-tached to the various organizations. The work of marshalling this great force will be difficult, but Chief Mar-shal Baguley and his efficient division marshals and aides will no doubt ac-quit themselves with credit, both to themselves and the parade. Until last night it was intended that there should be two street demonstrations in the evening, one under Republican auspices, and the other by the railroaders' sound money organizations, which are to be at Wheeling park in the afternoon. However, last night representatives of the railroaders' organization met Chief Marshal Baguley and it was soon decided that the railroaders, who will have from 3,500 to 4,000 men in line, would form the first division of a combined street demonstration in favor of a sound currency. By this arrangement there will be from 6,500 to 8,000 men in line, by far the greatest demonstration ever seen in West Virginia.

The Railroad Employes' Gold Club heid a meeting at the Terminal passenger station last night to complete arrangements for the meeting and the parade, which is to take place to-night. President Jamison occupied the chair and Secretary Thiers read the reports of committees, and letters from delegations that are to come from other cities to take part in the raily. From the information received clubs and delegations will come from all the railroad centres and turn out largely. There is no programme of speaking will take place at 2 o'clock in the af-ternoon in the Wheeling park casino, under the auspices of the railroaders' sound money organization: Special motor trains on the Wheeling & Elm Grove road will convey the crowds to the park.\

One great feature of the parade that had not been hoped for, will be the appearance in line of the railroad employes' sound money clubs of Pennsylvania, West Virginia and Ohio, which meet here to-morrow at Wheeling park. There will be between three and four thousand railronders in line, and they will make a great showing. The executive committee of the local Railroad Employes' Gold Club, met with Chief Marshal Baguley last night and decided to join with the Republican clubs in making the grandest demonstration ever seen in this part of the country. The railroaders were given the right of line and will act as escort to the Republican clubs, which are to follow. Their formation is given elsewhere in these columns. Then will follow the Republican clubs in the order named in Chief Marshal Baguley's general order, printed in another column.

The Republican clubs will begin arriving early in the afternoon and will continue to come over the various lines until about half past seven, when all the visiting organizations will have arrived.
